INSTITUTE for PUBLIC SERVICE

Serving Tennessee and Beyond

WHO WE ARE:

The Tennessee Language Center originated as an agency of the State of Tennessee in 1986 as the Tennessee Foreign Language Institute (TFLI), a one of its kind in state government, whose creators saw the importance of global communication skills in the world of tomorrow.

Today, the Tennessee Language Center, under the direction of the Institute for Public Service of the University of Tennessee, is dedicated to responsive service of the public sector, the business community and private citizens in realizing their intercultural communication goals through classes, training, professional development, translation and interpretation services.
