

Culture & Diversity Training for Businesses

The professionals at the Tennessee Language Center help facilitate business without borders. In today's global environment, the best businesses are not only in compliance with Title VI but take the lead on culture and diversity training. Training and workshops can help bolster the cultural competency of an organization, as well as offer solutions to common problems in communication.

The Tennessee Language Center offers a variety of prepared and customized training to suit your precise business needs, including:

- Refugee and Immigrant 101
- Culture-Specific Training
- Cross Cultural Communication
- International Business Etiquette
- Implicit Bias

Customized workshops – we will create a training to meet your individual organizational needs
